If you are looking for Temple Mints and peanut cups at your reception then we are not the caterer for you. If you are a high maintenance high strung stressed out mother of the bride then call La Calle. If you are looking for cucumbers in your water glasses then don't call us. However if you do want lots of great quality affordable food, a stress free fun atmosphere and good easy to work with customer service... then we are your caterer!

Our wedding events can be set-up to be a formal black and white event or as a casual summer party. In order to best serve you and your company let us know how you would like your wedding.

*If you are looking for a rehearsal dinner the night before then see our main menus page.
